Dear Sirs,

We are in receipt of your letter of the 6th inst respecting the dividends on the Consols belonging to the Estate of the above Deceased, and in reply, would observe that it is not possible for us to credit the account of the Estate with the dividends while the formalities of transfer after death have not been fulfilled, and we shall therefore be obliged if you will kindly enable us to proceed to the transfer of the Securities in England according to the manner prescribed by the will of the deceased.

Yours faithfully,

MANAGER
